

It began hundreds of years ago, when the Pima and Maricopa Indians occupied the banks of the sacred Gila River. Sacrificing their livelihood to offer friendship and shelter to settlers heading westward, the tribes' welcoming nature transformed what was believed to be hostile territory into a temporary sanctuary.

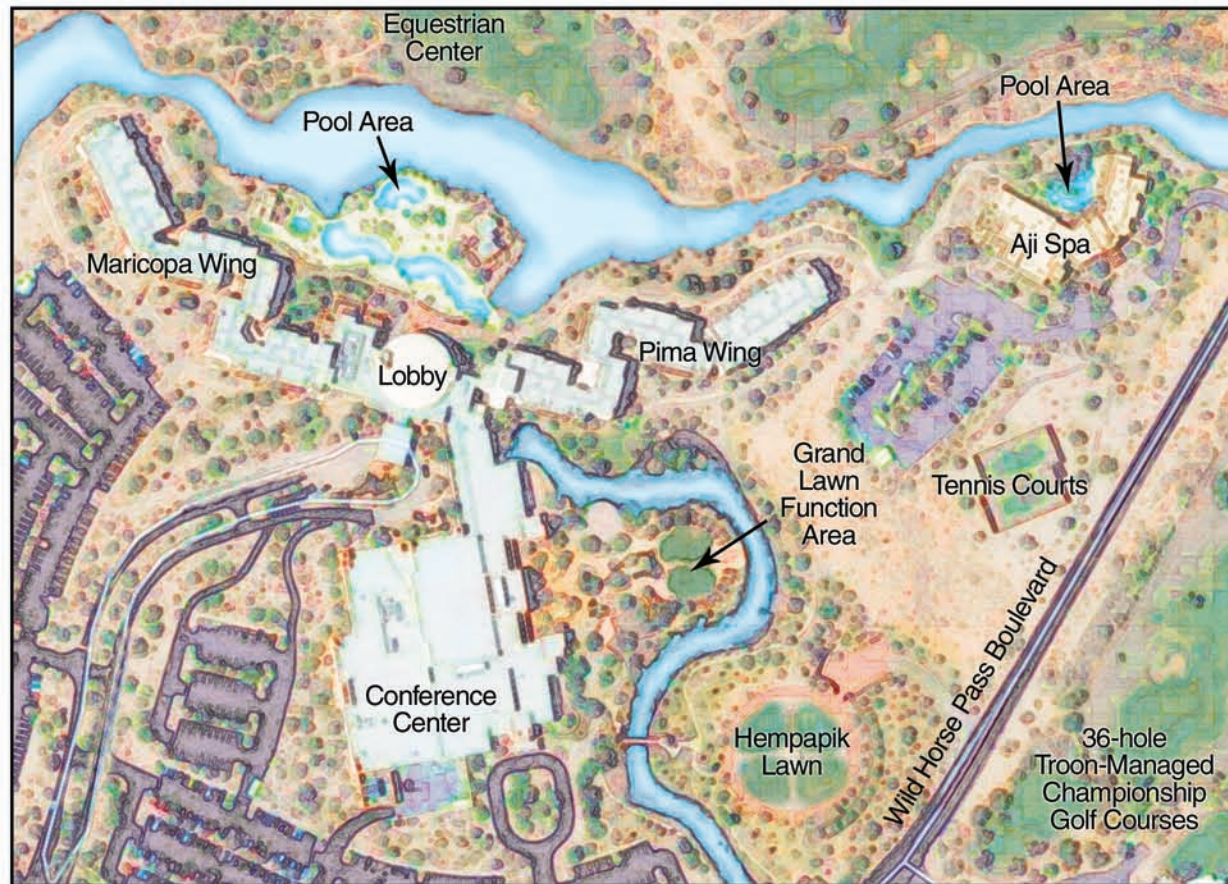

Their beliefs still hold true today.

Sheraton Hotels & Resorts is proud to bestow the rich history and culture of the Pima and Maricopa to bring you the Sheraton Wild Horse Pass Resort and Spa. You're invited to experience a truly unforgettable stay and an eternal tradition.
